

DUBH LINN GATE: IRISH PUB IN VANCOUVER

Foodology September 19, 2015 irish, Mount Pleasant/Main Street, Pub/Bar

Dubh Linn Gate is an Irish pub that recently opened in Vancouver close on Main and Terminal. They also have their original location in Whistler.

I was pretty excited when it opened because it's only a few minutes from my office. This area around False Creek is definitely growing with new restaurants and breweries popping up.

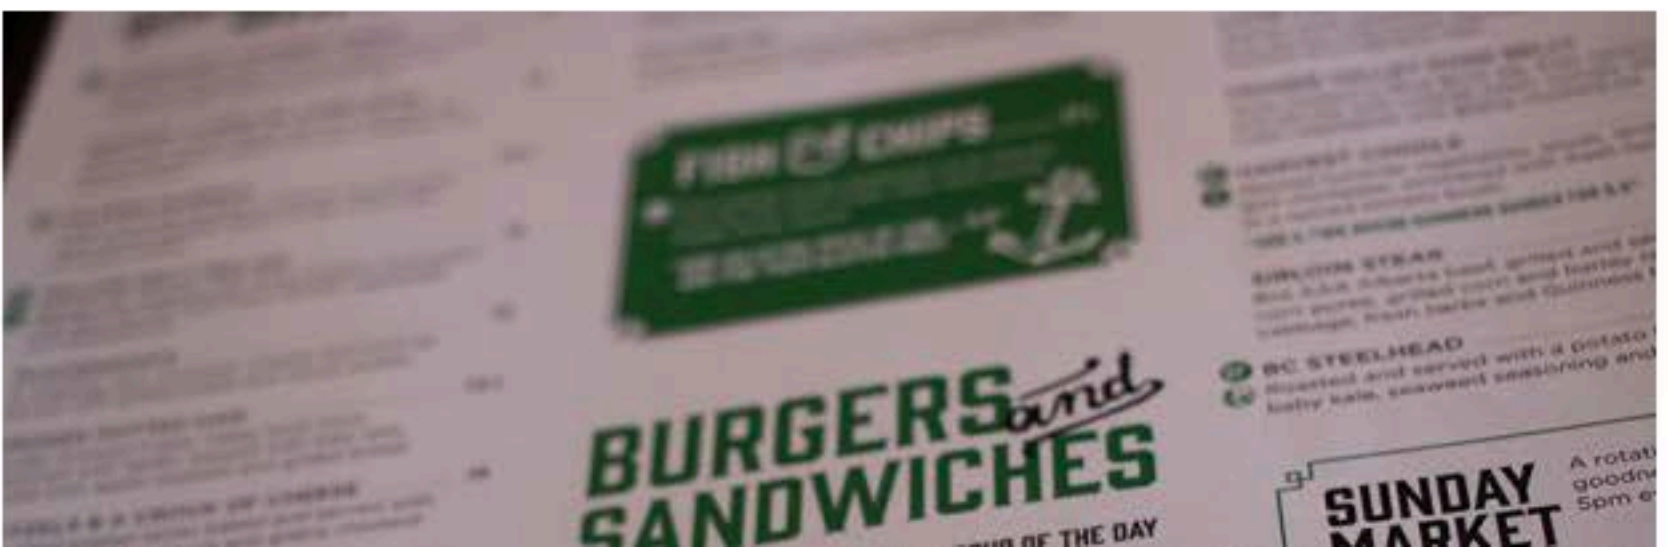

The interior is quite cozy. There are long tables, booths, a bar. Even with their high ceilings, they were able to create a nice vibe here.

The decor is nice and there are so many little trinkets that will make you bring you back to Ireland.

The menu is the same for lunch and dinner.

Beermosa is on special between 3pm – 6pm for $4.75. I quite like this as its light and easy to drink.

Also for their daily happy hour, they have the House Lager for $4.75

Foodology.ca

Chip n Dips (Large – $7) comes with a bowl of fries and your choice of garlic mayo, sour cream and chive dip. The fries are quite addictive and to munch on, plus the dips are tasty too.

Foodology.ca

Banger and Mash ($16.50) has Two Rivers produced custom Guinness infused pork banger, served with creamy mash, pale ale onion gravy and topped with a crispy sage leaf.

Foodology.ca

Guinness Burger ($16.50) has 6oz St. Helen's beef burger on a brioche bun with Guinness cheddar, roast garlic mayo, stout bbq sauce, lettuce, pickled red onions and tomato. The burger was delicious and the beef patty had a very nice flavour to it. Fries were great too.

Steak and Guinness Pie ($16) has AAA Alberta beef cooked tender in rich Guinness gravy with spuds and carrots, baked bubbly with a flaky golden pastry top. This comes out piping hot, so make sure you don't bite into it right away. It stay hot for a long time.

I find the drinks and food great, but the value you pay is a bit on the higher side for a pub. An entree is around $16 – $25, which is a bit much even for lunch. They don't have any daily specials except for drinks. $14 for wings as an appetizer makes me sad.

We Rate Dubh Linn Gate Irish Pub:

Address:

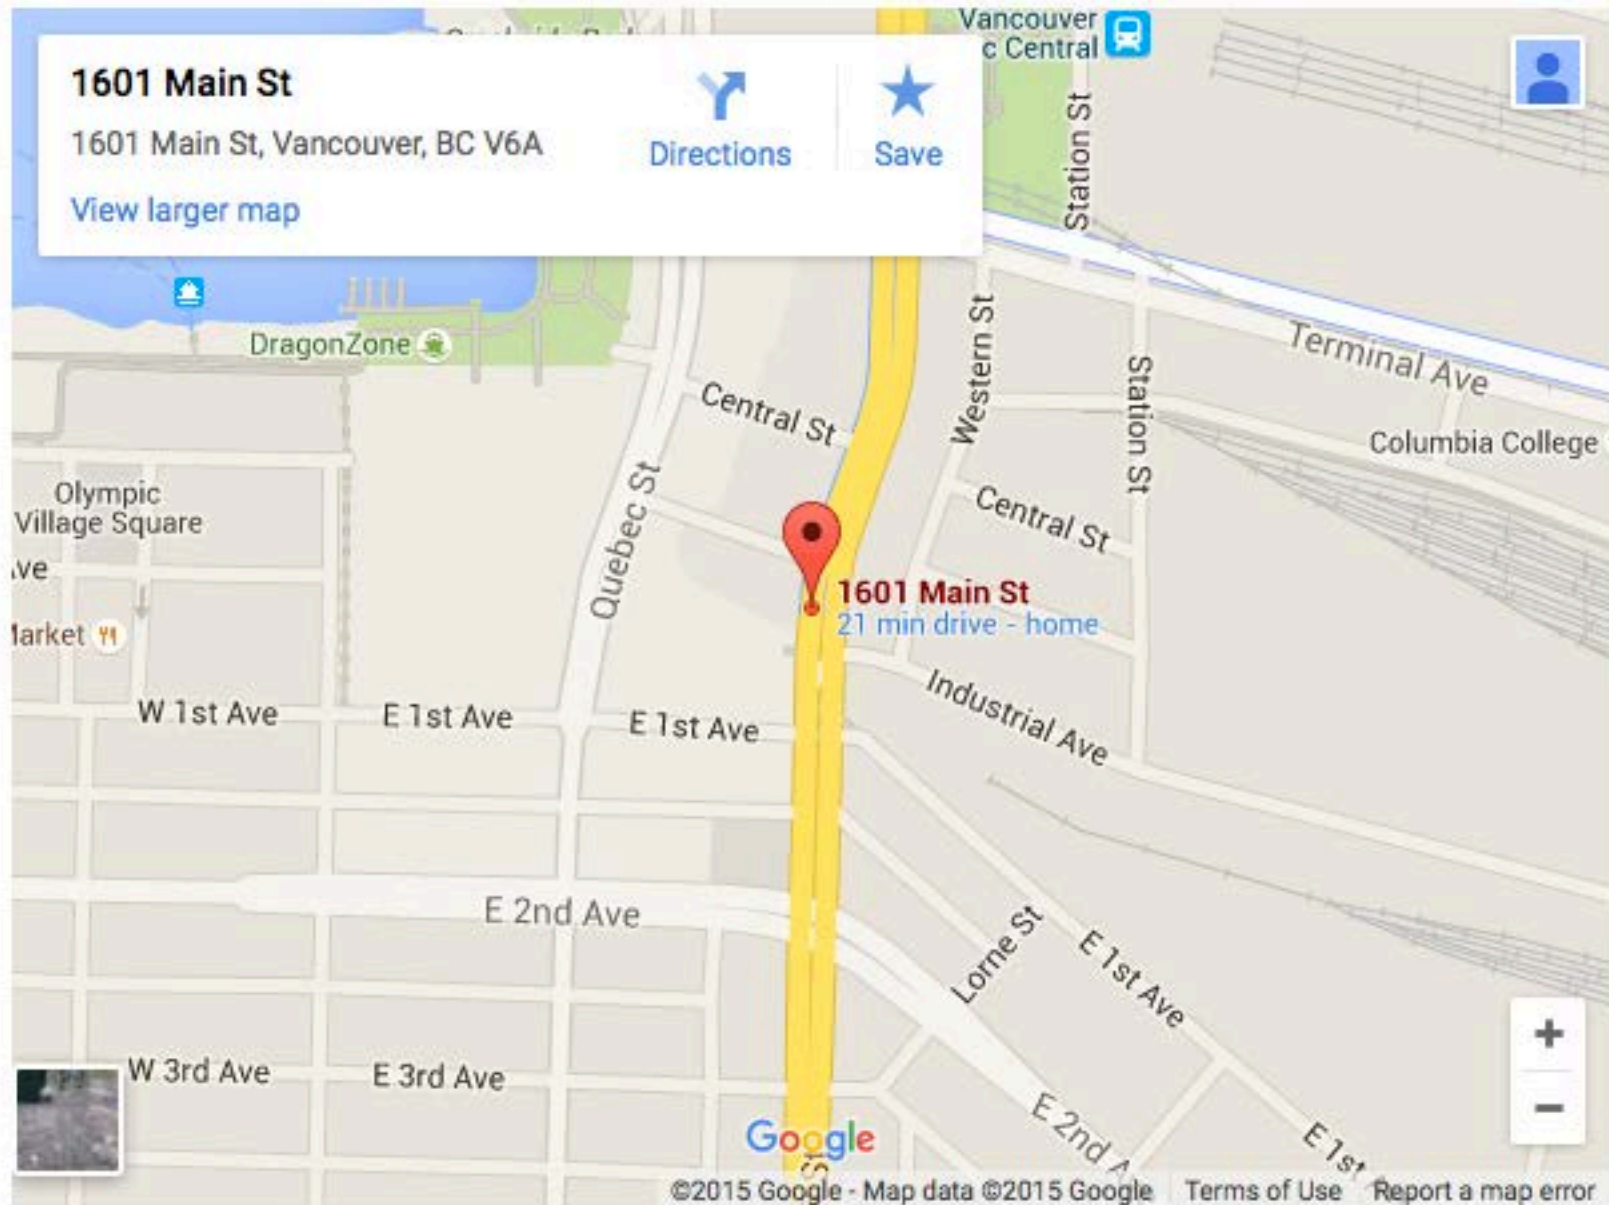

1601 Main Street, Vancouver

Website:

<http://vancouver.dubhlinngate.com/>

Rated 2.9 5 votes

 zomato

About The Author

Foodology

Diana started Foodology in 2010 because she just eats out everyday! She started a food blog to share her love of food with the world! She lives in Vancouver, BC and adores the diversity of food around her. She will go crazy for churros and lattes.